

DATE	December 17th, 2023 7:30pm
LOCATION	Loretto-Hilton Center The Rep 130 Edgar Road, St. Louis, MO, 63119
EXPERIENCE	Immerse yourself in the magic of the season as you enter a holiday wonderland and join us for “Rally for The Rep: A Holiday Benefit Experience.” Create lasting memories filled with joy, artistry, and the spirit of giving. Indulge in delectable desserts from local bakeries, and explore an array of concessions designed to tantalize your taste buds. Brace yourself for an exclusive opportunity to engage in a Q&A session with none other than the renowned John Goodman, a colossal figure in the world of entertainment. Get ready to be captivated by his insights, anecdotes, and perhaps a glimpse at the behind-the-scenes of his illustrious career. But the magic doesn't stop there! Transport yourself to the golden era of music with The Lovettes and their show-stopping salute to the female icons and girl groups of the 40s, 50s, and 60s, that promises to add a unique and toe-tapping twist to our festive celebration.
BENEFITING	This pivotal fundraising initiative aims to raise $2.5 million by December 31st, ensuring the completion of our current season and announcing the 2024-2025 season. The Rep is hoping to secure our presence in our vibrant arts community, as our campaign extends to 2026, fortifying our endowment for sustained stability. Your attendance at the “Rally for The Rep: A Holiday Benefit Experience” signifies crucial support for our beloved non-profit institution. As we navigate financial hurdles, our commitment to the St. Louis arts scene remains unwavering, employing over 200 professionals during our nine-month season, contributing significantly to the city's cultural and economic vitality.
